S. 591

To authorize the President to suspend the application of laws and regulations that impede economic revitalization and growth.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 16 (legislative day, MARCH 3), 1993

Mr. D'AMATO (for himself, Mr. SHELBY, Mr. DOLE, Mr. MACK, Mr. THURMOND, and Mr. DOMENICI) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To authorize the President to suspend the application of laws and regulations that impede economic revitalization and growth.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Presidential Credit
5 Availability and Economic Recovery Act”.

6 SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds and declares that:

8 (1) Adequate credit is necessary for the revital-
9 ization and growth for all sectors of our economy.

1 (2) Financial institutions are subject to layers
2 of unnecessary regulations, some of which, impose
3 large costs without increasing the safety and sound-
4 ness of our financial system.

5 (3) The regulatory burden amounts to a tax on 6 our financial systems that has been estimated by the 7 Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council
8 to be as high as $17,000,000,000.

9 (4) This regulatory burden cost is draining cap-
10 ital from financial institutions and significantly con-
11 tributing to the lack of available credit for small
12 business.

13 (5) The lack of available credit for small busi-
14 nesses hampers the growth of small businesses and
15 is directly contributing to the high rate of unemploy-
16 ment in the United States.

17 (6) The overwhelming majority of new jobs are
18 created by small businesses in the United States.

19 (7) The President should be given the authority
20 to provide financial institutions with relief from this 21 regulatory burden in order to provide immediate 22 credit relief to all sectors of the economy, especially
23 credit worthy small businesses and to sustain eco-
24 nomic growth.

1 SEC. 3. PURPOSE.

2 The purposes of this Act are—

3 (1) to authorize the President to increase the 4 availability of credit,

5 (2) to enhance the economic recovery, and

6 (3) to provide sustained noninflationary eco-
7 nomic growth,
8 through the immediate suspension of laws, rules, regula-
9 tions, and guidelines that impose unnecessarily burden-
10 some costs on insured depository institutions.

11 SEC. 4. DEFINITION.

12 As used in this Act, the term “insured depository in-
13 stitution” has the same meaning as in section 3 of the 14 Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

15 SEC. 5. PRESIDENTIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY.

16 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 30 days after the 17 date of enactment of this Act, the President shall conduct
18 a thorough review and evaluation of all statutory and reg-
19 ulatory provisions affecting insured depository institu-
20 tions. This review shall include—

21 (1) an analysis of the purposes of the provision;

22 (2) the effectiveness of the provision in achiev-
23 ing such purposes;

24 (3) whether any other provision provides an al-
25 ternative or duplicative means of achieving those 26 purposes;

1 (4) the cost imposed by compliance with such
2 provisions upon insured depository institutions and
3 consumers; and

4 (5) the relationship between such provision, its

14 if the President makes a determination described in sub-
15 section (c).

16 (c) DETERMINATION.—For the purpose of subsection
17 (b), a determination is described in this subsection if it
18 is a determination that—

19 (1) the law, regulation, or guideline has already 20 accomplished its goal and the law, regulation, or 21 guideline is therefore no longer necessary;

22 (2) the law, regulation, or guideline is not as ef-
23 fective in achieving its intended purpose as other
24 available alternatives that would impose lesser costs

1 on financial institutions, their customers, or the
2 economy;

3 (3) the cost of compliance with the law, regula-
4 tion, or guideline outweighs the potential benefits
5 sought to be accomplished by the law, regulation, or 6 guideline; or

7 (4) the law, regulation, or guideline has a nega-
8 tive impact on the availability of credit in the United
9 States which outweighs the benefits sought to be ac-
10 complished by the law, regulation, or guideline.

11 (d) PUBLICATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE.—A Presi-
12 dential order issued pursuant to this section shall be pub-
13 lished in the Federal Register, and shall become effective
14 30 days after such publication, unless the President, for 15 good cause, determines that a shorter period is necessary
16 and in the public interest.

17 SEC. 6. CONSULTATION AND NOTIFICATION.

18 (a) CONSULTATION.—Prior to making a finding
